REPORT for JANUARY –FEBRUARY 2022

Dear Friends,

Hello from lovely central California!

Ministry Update: It was nice to be home for Christmas and all of January. My first meeting in February was in Greenville, MS with Pastor Ken Burkett where I have been twice before. During this 4-day meeting the Lord gave me the opportunity of ministering to the entire student body (350+ students) in a public elementary school. I was there M-W for two hours each day as they rotated the various classes to the room where I was. I played my violin and bandura. The students were also able to watch me play the glasses on a big screen TV from my web site. I also shared about my ministry. When I asked each classes how many went to Sunday School or church, almost every hand went up. They knew about the “pastor” and how he preaches about God from the Bible. That gave me a good “in” to talk about what an evangelist does as I presented the gospel. When I ended by quoting John 3:16, a good many of the students joined me in reciting it. Who knows what fruit may come from a class like this?

My next meeting was a repeat church with Pastor Gartrell (new to the church) in Las Cruces, NM. Here I found that the pastor’s wife was a roommate with my daughter Jennifer when they were in grad school. It truly is a small world. The former pastor went Home to be with the Lord. It was great to see an 80-year old man trust Christ on Sunday.

From there, I was privileged to return (after an absence of 14 years) to a native American ministry just west of Tuscon, AZ. It was great to reacquaint myself with some old friend and meet new ones. Here a 20-year old and an 8-year old trusted Christ. My next meeting was in Phoenix, AZ. This is the same church where I was stranded for ten weeks in 2020 due to the “pandemic.!” Pastor Ekblad was, and has always been, so gracious to me. We had a good 8-day meeting. A young boy was led to the Lord by his parents on Saturday evening!

I still have several more meetings in California. Will report on them in my next letter at the end of April.

Medical Update: Praise God, my knees could not be better. I can now go up and down stairs fairly easily with no pain! Even my asthma seems to be under control right now. God has been so good.

Motorhome Update: The “new” motorhome is working extremely well. Feels like I’m still on a honeymoon with it. I have just under 40,000 miles on it already! Wow! Again, God has shown His goodness.

Music Update: I recently printed several copies of my various collections of music (both sacred and classical) for a music conference I attended. I am greatly overstocked at the moment. If you are interested, check out my Facebook page for a list of what is available.

Thanks for being a friend of this ministry and for your faithful prayer support. Yours in Christ,

Ken Lynch, Eph. 6:19
